

Client Query :

I am trying to locate the marriage of my great-grandparents, Martin and Mary Conneely. Their daughter, my grandmother Barbara Conneely, was born in 1919 in Shanvally, Co. Galway. I think her mother's maiden name was Walsh, but I am uncertain.

Results :

I have located the birth certificate for the client's grandmother, Barbara Conneely. This information matches with the client's regarding her birth, and also confirms her own mother was indeed a Walsh prior to her marriage. I have transcribed the document below.

Entry #40 – 31st March 1919, Shanvally, Barbara, female, father: Martin Conneely, Shanvally, mother: Mary Conneely, formerly Walsh, occupation of father: farmer, informant: Martin Conneely, father, Shanvally. Registered on 9th May 1919 by Kennedy O'Brien, registrar¹.

Sum in book and up.	19 19			Martin	Mary		Martin Conneely	Hint:
	40	Thirty first March Shanvally	Barbara	♀	Conneely	Conneely	Farmer	father	May 1919	Kennedy O'Brien Registrar.
				Shanvally	formerly Walsh		Shanvally

Now it is confirmed Barbara's mother's maiden name was Walsh, it was possible to perform a narrower search for the client's great-grandparents, likely taking place prior to Barbara's birth. This has also been successful; a marriage record having surfaced from the previous year. A transcription has been typed below :

Entry #139 – 9th April 1918, Roman Catholic Church of Camus, Martin Conneely, full age, bachelor, occupation: farmer, residence: Lettermore na Coille, father: Dudley Conneely (dead), father's occupation: farmer, and Mary Walsh, full age, spinster, no occupation, residence: Lettermore na Coille, father: Pat Walsh, father's occupation: farmer. Married by Rev. J. A. Walshe in the presence of Martin Conneely and Kate Walsh².
